Industrial Technologies Best Project Award Finalist Talk

Over 900 projects in the field of Industrial Technologies have been launched under the Framework Programmes 5, 6 & 7. Industrial Technologies 2012 will identify and celebrate the very best of these. The Best Project Award will be given to the project, which has had the greatest economic and societal impact, boosting European competitiveness by creating new products and processes. 63 projects applied for the award and the 10 finalists were selected by the steering group of Industrial Technologies Best Project Award. NANODEVICE was one of the 10 finalists. Ulla Vogel (NRCWE) participated the gala event and introduced the outline of the project and the achievements and collected the trophy. Her presentation can be opened from the link <http://vimeo.com/44724595> (see Figure 1 and Figure 2).

Pictures promoting the project

A professional photographer Mauri Helenius was hired for the SENN2012 Congress and the pictures have been used in promotional purposes e.g. in the project website (<http://www.nano-device-eu>). The pictures are presented in Figure 3 – Figure 10.
